Encountering Jesus in the Sacrament of Marriage

FEBRUARY 8

Sessions at 4pm OR 6:15 pm - Meal for all from 5:45-6:15

Catholic Marriage is a sacrament, a way of expressing God's love in the world. Marriage is a calling from God to love one's spouse with the deep, eternal love that Christ has for all people.

INTRODUCTION:

Ritual of Marriage: Matthews Hall

Father will walk all ages through the symbols and promises of the wedding ritual that takes place during a Catholic marriage ceremony.

AGE GROUP SESSIONS:

Adults will have a choice of 3 mini-sessions, of about a half hour each. They will have time to attend 2 sessions. This will give the presenters enough time to do a quality job, and for questions and answers. Parents in the Family Session will have a chance to attend these as well.

The options will be:

- What is Catholic marriage? Presenter is Peter Martin from the Diocesan Office of Family Life - John Paul II room
- Why Marriage Matters: Speaker from Marriage Minnesota - Marian Room
- Get Your Questions about Marriage, Divorce and Annulment Answered: Fr. John - in the Bride's Room off of Matthews Hall.

Teens – Grades 6 to 10 will be together, dividing out for the discussion segment - Matthews Hall

- Introductory games, with a slant toward building relationships
- Video from Theology of the Body
- Small group discussions

Elementary Children: Grades 1-5 with Catechists - Parish Life Center Gym

- Sacrament of Matrimony: based on Scripture Genesis
- Four stations with different learning activities: Friendship, Communication, and Forgiveness. (Discussion, team building, music and craft)

Many of us are called to the vocation of Marriage, and all of us are connected to married couples in one way or another. Come and learn more about how Christ and his Church help us to be His followers in our family life and society.

From the Pastor's Desk

The move to temporary worship space has happened. It will seem strange to celebrate Sunday Eucharist in Matthews Hall. A young person expressed a great desire to try having Mass in a new space. Others have expressed various concerns about such a move. Whatever our reaction to this new situation - here we are. Jesus walked around Galilee encountering new people and new situations. But the significance of His presence brought new life wherever He went.

So as we begin this temporary arrangement, let Jesus be the center of all we do. In the change we will be challenged and surprised. We have to trust that with Jesus we will find a way through the challenges. And we pray to be open to the surprises that will come at us. I believe Jesus will continually reveal Himself to us.

Peace,
Fr. John

MASS IN MATTHEWS HALL

January 30 was the last day we had Mass in the church due to the renovation. Mass will be in Matthews Hall until the reconstruction is finished in the Spring.

If you are interested in helping to set up chairs in Matthews Hall, please call the parish office at 625-3131.

TRAVEL THE ROAD TO EMMAUS

"Were not our hearts burning within us while He spoke to us on the way?" Luke 24:32

In one way or another, we are all on the road to Emmaus. On that journey we encounter Christ in our life's most blessed moments and also in the most difficult times. If you would like a chance to recognize the times your heart has been burning, the times when Christ has been present to you on your path, we invite women ages 20 to 90+ to take part in the Emmaus Retreat - 6:30pm Feb. 24th to 3pm Feb. 26th at SSND facilities. You will make new friends and return refreshed and renewed. Contact Beth Shank at 388-2995, ext. 109 or Julia Schwamberger in the evening at 345-7496.

STRENGTHS FINDER TIP FOR THE WEEK

Trust God

“Many wounded people don't know how to get what they really need, so they wallow in self-pity. Taking our eyes off of ourselves enables us to look at God. This positions us to trust Him to meet every need in our lives. God knows exactly what we need, and He promises to provide it through His abundant grace and mercy. Ask Him to fill you with His power today, and trust Him as the Lord our Provider.”

T-SHIRT DRIVE FOR SOLDIERS

Care Packages for Soldiers is sending care packages to soldiers overseas and would like to get the community involved by having a T-shirt drive. Soldiers wear military clothing all day while they are deployed and on their leisure time it is nice for them to wear clothes that make them feel like they are home. I am having a T-shirt drive to help supply enough T-shirts for the number of care packages being sent out. The T-shirts must be new and in sizes of Medium, Large or Extra Large. Please deliver to St. Johns The Baptist Catholic Church by September 1, 2012. Thank you for your support. LoriAnne Marquardt 507-766-6233

CARE PACKAGES FOR SOLDIERS

Care Packages for Soldiers is having a fund raiser to send care packages to soldiers overseas and is looking for volunteers who would like to knit, sew, crochet, embroidery or any other item for the event. Items can be dropped off at St. Johns The Baptist Church no later than June 1, 2012. Any questions feel free to email or call me. Thank you for your support. LOYOLA COOK'S TOUR OF KITCHENS

The Loyola High School Music Dept. invites you to the Kitchen Parade of Homes. Tickets can be purchased for $10 and include tours of four beautiful new kitchens on Trail Drive in Mankato. Each home features an area designer and builder. Come to the kitchens to see what surprises await you! Sunday, Feb. 12 from 1:00 pm - 5:00 pm. Please help the LHS Band & Choir raise funds for their service trip to New York City. For information, call 388-2997, or: loyolacatholicsschool.org, or email Bridget Hermer, LHS Music Director, at bhermer@loyolacatholicsschool.org.

JOURNEY TO CHRISTIAN INITIATION Sacramental Formation & Celebration

First Eucharist

“We pray in Thanksgiving”

This week the young people of the parish who are preparing for their first Eucharist will learn the order of the Mass by witnessing a “SLOW MOTION MASS” The first communicants will experience a Sunday Mass in a step by step demonstration. As a parish we witness the Mass as sort of “out of habit.” The next time you go to mass, slow it down in your mind and watch each step paying attention to the events, symbols, readings, prayers, everything that happens. Everything that happens during the mass is intentional; preparing us to receive Christ in the Eucharist. What have you been missing?

Questions? Call Kevin at 387-6928

MARRIAGE MINUTE:

What does marriage have to do with human dignity?

“Marriage protects and promotes the dignity of men and women, the dignity of children, and the dignity of all persons in society.

First, the lifelong partnership of marriage is the only place where men and women can truly “speak” the language of sexual love – total, faithful, forever, and open to children. Only within marriage can sexual relations mean what they are supposed to mean as an expression of self-giving love between a man and a woman (not selfish use). The promises of a husband and a wife speak a high level of mutual trust and invite the confidence that sex will not be exploitative but will manifest true union and life-giving love.

Second, marriage provides a context within which the rights of children to a mother and a father are legally protected. Marriage also helps assure that children will be welcomed as gifts; apart from the life-long commitment of marriage, children are likely to be viewed as threats or acquired as products. Finally, the family, founded on marriage, is a place where a person can exist for his or her own sake. Marriage teaches society not to value persons only for their usefulness.” (USCCB.org, Marriage: Unique for a Reason)

Peter's Peace

Do you know anyone with a serious illness? If you do then you know how hard it can be to watch a loved one suffer in pain and anguish. Illnesses can come in many forms, physical, mental, and spiritual. Many people know someone who suffers from a physical ailment like cancer or Multiple Sclerosis. We may also know others who suffer from mental illnesses such as depression, Alzheimer's, or bi-polar disorder.

To me the most difficult aspect of illness is the lack of control I have over the illness, especially when it is effecting someone I care about. My first reaction is to want to take the illness upon myself so that the suffering friend will be made better. I know this isn't possible, so I cry out to God to bring healing and health to my loved one. I know Jesus is the Healer and that he can remove every pain and all suffering. Unfortunately, for whatever reason God has, he does not always bring physical healing to those I love.

In this week's Gospel, Jesus is presented as the Healer, the one who restores life to the dying. Yet the first reading from the book of Job is a painful description of the suffering person, one whose life is tormented with sickness and misfortune. We are given to understand that God both allows suffering and heals suffering. To better understand this, I need to look to the Saints.

"Suffering is a great grace; through suffering the soul becomes like the Savior; in suffering love becomes crystallized; the greater the suffering, the purer the love."

--St. Faustina

"If we only knew the precious treasure hidden in infirmities, we would receive them with the same joy with which we receive the greatest benefits, and we would bear them without ever complaining or showing signs of weariness."

--St. Vincent de Paul

It is in suffering that we can come to know better the love and sacrifice of Christ on the Cross. He who bore our iniquities, by whose wounds we have been healed, Christ is not only our Healer, but our example in sickness and in health.

This Sunday's Psalm response is "Praise the Lord, who heals the broken-hearted." I am reminded of the brokenness of my own life. I ask myself what is the state of my spiritual health and I am forced to examine my soul. Spiritual illness is much more fatal than physical ailment. If my soul is in poor condition, how can I expect to enter into God's Kingdom? If sin is the disease that ails my soul, God's love and forgiveness is the cure. Once I have been healed it is up to me to keep my soul healthy through prayer, sacrifice, the sacraments, scripture, and service.

Our hope is in the healing nature of our God, a God who gives life, and a God who understands suffering. By our own suffering may be healed. Peace. Peter.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE

It's never too late to donate to the campaign!

Every dollar helps us as we begin the construction and remodeling. Thank you to all from the parish who have generously pledged or provided a gift to the campaign. THANK YOU!

RENOVATION: "BEHIND THE WALL"

"Behind the Wall" this week the roof work finishes up and within the next week it will be completely enclosed and ready for inside work on the Gathering Space. The electrical, flooring and ceiling work is finishing up on Matthews Hall in preparation for the move downstairs for Mass on the first weekend of February. We ask God for His continued grace and blessing on our project. May He bless the contractors and laborers working on the project. Please be considerate and leave the closest parking spots for the elderly and physically challenged and utilize the large parking lot near the rectory in the future.

Stewardship Reflection for the Week of FEBRUARY 5, 2012

Posted by www.theCatholicSteward.com

"In the gospel today, Jesus heals the sick and performs other such miracles. He then tells His disciples that He cannot stay. He must move on to the next town and continue preaching and healing others. "For this purpose have I come," Jesus says.

As Christ's disciples, it is our purpose and our mission to proclaim the Word of God to the world today. We are, in effect, the hands and feet of Christ, and He calls each one of us to continue His ministry of proclaiming the good news. In fact, that is why He established the Church – to call all men to Himself.

Each one of us plays a very important role in the Church's mission. We are all vital members of the One Church, and the Lord has given us many good gifts with which to carry out this mission. When we live our lives for the glory of God and use our gifts – our time, our talents, and our treasure – to serve the Lord by serving others, people are sure to see Christ in us. People are sure to be drawn to our way of life, to the hope and happiness Christ offers, and men are sure to come to Him.

Later in Mark's gospel, when Jesus tells the apostles, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation," (Mk. 16:15), He was speaking to the whole Church. Let us take ownership of our call. May we all use our God-given gifts, our time, our talent, and our treasure – to proclaim the good news: Christ has come to save all and He offers everyone life everlasting. It is a wonderfully hope-filled message. May our lives reflect its truth!"
